

Larry Bromberg – Executive Director, Legal and Compliance

BIOGRAPHY

Larry Bromberg joined Morgan Stanley in 2000. He has global responsibility for all intellectual property matters. He is also responsible for legal coverage of market data, strategic investments involving IP, a broad range of transactional matters, and open source software legal coverage.

Prior to Morgan Stanley, Mr. Bromberg was a patent litigator at Morgan & Finnegan (1991-2000) and an electronics designer at Honeywell (1986-1989).

Mr. Bromberg has a J.D. from Columbia Law School and a B.S.E.E. from Tufts University. He is a member of the New York and Massachusetts bars and a registered patent attorney.